

SUPER TURRICAN™

Super Turrican is back, and once again the USS Freedom Forces have to prevent the evil Machine from harming innocent civilizations. You'll have to jump and shoot your way through large levels filled with lots of enemies. Thankfully, you have a wide arsenal at your disposal, including classics such as a Laser, a Spread-shot, and an improved Rebound. There is also the option to go into "wheel-mode" for a limited time to become invincible, lay mines and shoot rockets. New to the arsenal are the Flamethrower and the Rope, which can be used to climb walls, cling to platforms or pick up out-of-reach items. And if that isn't enough for you, you can now pick up homing missiles as secondary weapons. Super Turrican is back, and badder than ever.
